

Host a Clinic by Aaron Thornbrugh Horsemanship

Clinic Topics

- Colt Starting
- Ground Manners
- Fundamental Horsemanship (Horsemanship I)
- Understanding Softness (Horsemanship II)
- Advancing Horsemanship (Horsemanship III)
- Ranch Roping I and II
- Horsemanship to Stockmanship
- Stockmanship
- 'The Ride' (Private Horsemanship Series)
- Life Skills Through Horsemanship
- Special Topics & Problem Solving Clinics Available

Host Responsibilities

- Help market the clinic by distributing fliers (provided), placing ads, etc.
- Help fill clinic slots, a minimum participation of 5 will be required.
- Provide lunch and drinks for participants and clinician*.
- Lodging provided to the clinician for overnight clinics*.

Host Benefits

The host will receive one clinic slot for free. The host may opt to use the slot for him/herself, give the slot as a gift or sell it to a participant, providing the minimum of 5 participants has been filled.

Clinic Fees

Clinician fees: $150.00 per day per horse/ rider participant. Auditing fees of $25.00 dollars per person will be charged and is payable to the clinician. Mileage fees* may be applied at the discretion of the clinician according to travel requirements. Any applicable arena fees will be divided between registered participants.

Booking

To schedule or ask questions contact:
Mule Thornbrugh at 479-263-8027 or
By Email: horsemanship@mulespeakshorse.com

Visit our website at www.mulespeakshorse.com

Thank you for considering hosting an ATH Clinic!

Total fees and expenses may be divided between clinic participants*

Hosting structure for 2009 clinics only

